Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Election of New Director. The board of directors (the “Board”) of IDEXX Laboratories, Inc. (the “Company”) elected Sophie V. Vandebroek, Ph.D. as a director on July 15, 2013. Dr. Vandebroek’s election fills a vacancy in Class II, the term for which ends at the 2014 annual meeting of stockholders. The Board has not yet determined the committees on which Dr. Vandebroek will serve.

Dr. Vandebroek will receive the same compensation as is paid to other nonemployee directors of the Company as described in the section entitled “Corporate Governance – Director Compensation” in the Company’s Proxy Statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 27, 2013, which description is incorporated by reference herein. The cash fee to be paid to Dr. Vandebroek for the third quarter of 2013 will be prorated to reflect her election on July 15, 2013. Annual deferred stock unit and stock option grants were made to directors on May 8, 2013, the date of the Company’s 2013 annual meeting of stockholders and, since Dr. Vandebroek was not serving as a director at that time, such grants will be made to Dr. Vandebroek in September 2013 and the award values will be prorated to reflect the portion of the year during which she will serve on the Board, specifically from her election on July 15, 2013 until the Company’s 2014 annual meeting of stockholders.

On July 15, 2013, the Company issued a press release regarding Dr. Vandebroek’s election to the Board. A copy of the press release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

IDEXX Laboratories Elects
Sophie Vandebroek to Board of Directors

WESTBROOK, Maine, July 15, 2013—IDEXX Laboratories, Inc. (NASDAQ: IDXX) today announced the unanimous election of Sophie V. Vandebroek, PhD as a member of the Company's Board of Directors effective July 15, 2013. Dr. Vandebroek fills a vacancy on the Board for a Class II director, the term for which ends at the Company's 2014 annual meeting of stockholders. At that meeting, Dr. Vandebroek is expected to stand for re-election by stockholders as a Class II director with a three-year term expiring in 2017.

"I am very pleased to welcome Sophie to our Board of Directors," commented Jonathan Ayers, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. "IDEXX is entering a critical new phase in its evolution as a leading pet healthcare innovation company. IDEXX is unique in its ability to serve practicing veterinarians around the world with a broad range of integrated diagnostic and information technology-based products and services. To further build upon this opportunity, the Company will need to expand its skills and aptitudes. With Sophie's outstanding depth of knowledge and experience in technology and business processes as well as track record of innovation and managing balanced R&D portfolios for large global enterprises, she is ideally suited to help guide and advise the Board and the Company's management team."

Dr. Vandebroek, 51, has been an executive with Xerox Corporation (NYSE: XRX), the world's leading enterprise for business process and document management, since 2002. Most recently, Dr. Vandebroek has been serving as Xerox's Chief Technology Officer and Corporate Vice President, as well as President of the Xerox Innovation Group since 2006. She is responsible for overseeing Xerox's research centers in Europe, Asia, Canada and the United States as well as the Palo Alto Research Center. Prior to her current positions, from 2002 to 2005, Dr. Vandebroek was Chief Engineer of Xerox and Vice President of the Xerox Engineering Center.

Dr. Vandebroek earned an undergraduate degree in engineering and a master's degree in electro-mechanical engineering from Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Leuven, Belgium, and she holds a PhD in electrical engineering from Cornell University in Ithaca, New York. Dr. Vandebroek is a Fellow of the Institute of Electrical & Electronics Engineers, a Fulbright Fellow, and a Fellow of the Belgian-American Educational Foundation. Dr. Vandebroek was inducted into the Women in Technology International Hall of Fame and elected into the Royal Flemish Academy for Arts & Sciences. Dr. Vandebroek holds more than a dozen U.S. patents and serves on the advisory council of the Dean of Engineering at MIT. Dr. Vandebroek has also served as a member of the Board of Directors of Analogic Corporation, a designer and manufacturer of advanced medical imaging and airport security systems, since 2008.

“IDEXX has a tremendous track record for global innovation in the pet healthcare industry as well as in its other lines of business,” commented Dr. Vandebroek. “The Company has a unique opportunity, by leveraging its diverse range of diagnostic modalities and expanding its information technology platforms and capabilities, to truly advance veterinary medical care. It’s an honor to help guide IDEXX into this exciting next phase of growth and evolution.”
